Dedication

We, the Senior Class of Rocky River High School, dedicate this, our 1944 Riverlet, to Mr. Motts and those alumni who are in the service of our country.

Lieutenant (j. g.) Randall F. Motts

The Senior Class of 1944 wishes to express its gratitude to the faculty of our Alma Mater for its unceasing efforts to help us during these troubled times. As the years roll on we shall reflect on the many pleasant experiences which will always be cherished memories to us.

History of the Class of '44

We, the graduating class of 1944, wish to present this, our class history.

With Don Bopp, president; Dick Heil, vice-president; and Bob Dillon, secretary-treasurer, we took our place in the kindergarten of high school and bravely launched upon our glorious career at Rocky River High School.

When the following September came, we anxiously looked forward to the unexplored realm of the eighth grade. At the beginning of the year we elected our class officers who ably led us through our second year of junior high school: Dick Heil, president; Glenn Combes, vice-president; Bob Dillon, secretary-treasurer. We were both socially and athletically minded and were well represented in scholarship, leadership, and service to the school. We thus prepared ourselves to head the junior high the following year.

In our freshman year we presented our first dance, the semi-formal, "Shamrock Shuffle." Our class proved to have its full complement of leaders, when we elected Bud Hughes, president; Karl Ware, vice-president; Joan Wood, secretary; and Ken Armstrong, treasurer. We ended our year successfully with the traditional freshman picnic.

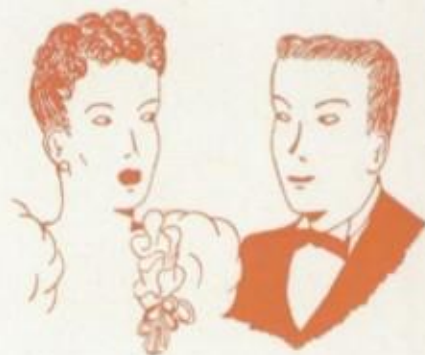

In the fall of '41 we made our way into the tenth grade and senior high. To head the class during the year, we elected Whitney Slaght, president; Duke Bitler, vice-president; Mickey McCormick, secretary; and Bill Watkins, treasurer. The annual sophomore dance, the Heartbeat, was held in February. In May, the sophomore picnic completed an enjoyable year.

The class of '44 wisely chose Paul Robinson to lead us through our junior year with other efficient officers as: vice-president — Duke Bitler; secretary — Patty Duff; and treasurer — Karl Ware. The first big event of the year was the Harvest Hop, which was followed, a few months later, by the junior-senior party held at Beach gym. A great responsibility was taken on by one of our classmates when Dona Mae Burkhardt was selected as the new editor of the Hi-Tide. We ended this eventful year with the realization that we were soon to become seniors.

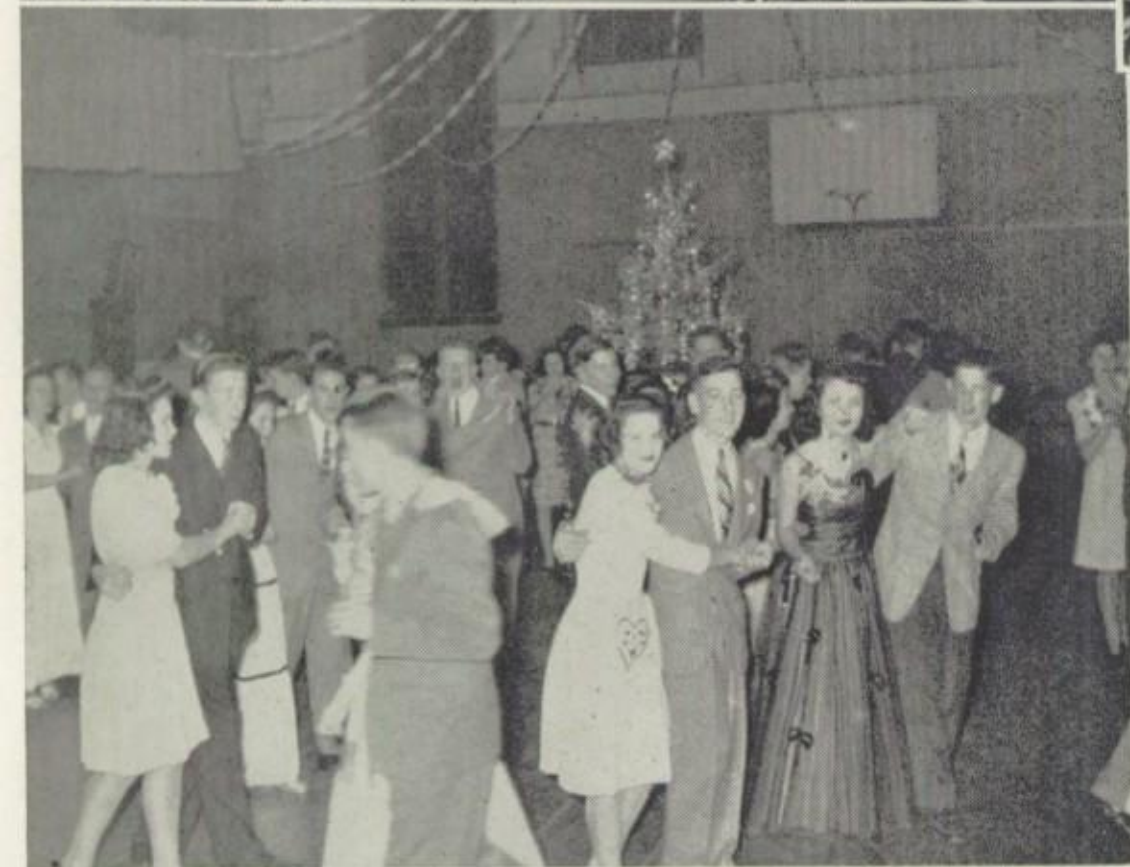

It did not take us long to adapt ourselves to senior life. We soon chose our class officers, with the result that Ray Sarles was elected president; Glenn Combes vice-president; Patty Duff, secretary; Karl Ware, treasurer. The traditional semi-formal Senior Christmas Dance was held in December. A party to honor the boys who were leaving at mid-year was held in January. At this time our class enjoyed dancing in the gym, a program of senior talent, and refreshments. Our senior play, "There Shall Be No Night" was presented to the public in March. The talented cast made both nights a great success. Three important events came within one week. On June 2, the traditional Senior Prom was held at the Lake Shore Hotel; Baccalaureate services took place in the high school auditorium the following Sunday; and to climax our school years, we, the seniors, were graduated from Rocky River High School on June the eighth, 1944.

Tubby

Bob Andree

Bob easily wins the title of "Most Jovial to Graduate in '44". One of Bob's main interests is the legitimate stage and he is always up to date on everything concerning the theatre.

Marge Beers

Full of pep and rarin' to go describes Marge to a "T". Her happy smile and joyful laugh come from the bottom of her heart.

Janet Berkey

That darling smile, and personality plus make for fun and surprises whenever Janet's around. She enjoys and is active in sports.

Ken Armstrong

Happy-go-lucky Scotty is always ready to have a good time or a good argument. We shall never forget his super acting in our senior play "There Shall Be No Night."

*Dear Jean,
Here to a darling Soph.
who I know will have loads of fun. I think your sweet!
Janet*

SENIOR CLASS

Cliff Badger

Without Cliff we can't imagine a dramatic production being a success and in years to come we hope to see his name in lights at the Hanna.

Marge Brittain

Being a master of sly remarks and catchy comebacks, this little brunette is an exceptional conversationalist. Although she appears rather dainty, Marge is a follower of the great outdoors.

*Dear Jean you're darn super. I think a lot of you.
Love
Carol*

Carol Brosmer

Carol's marvelous voice and beautiful hair are two of her greatest assets. Her deep interest in the theatre should carry her far in future years.

Bill Beach

This quiet, well-mannered chap is best liked for his good nature and friendly spirit. His flashing eyelashes also give him recognition as a lady's man.

Dona Mae Burkhart

A winning smile, an original hair-do, long curly eyelashes (which are the envy of many girls), and loads of personality seem to be a suitable sketch of Dona. Dona also deserves much credit as the editor of the Hi-Tide.

Ray Berkey

Penfield sent "Bud" to Rocky River and without him, we probably wouldn't have won the championship in basketball — that smile and sense of humor will be remembered by all.

Ed Beutler

Pat is a big fellow with a voice to match. He's quiet in school but he's loads of fun at a party. He left at mid-year to go to Purdue University.

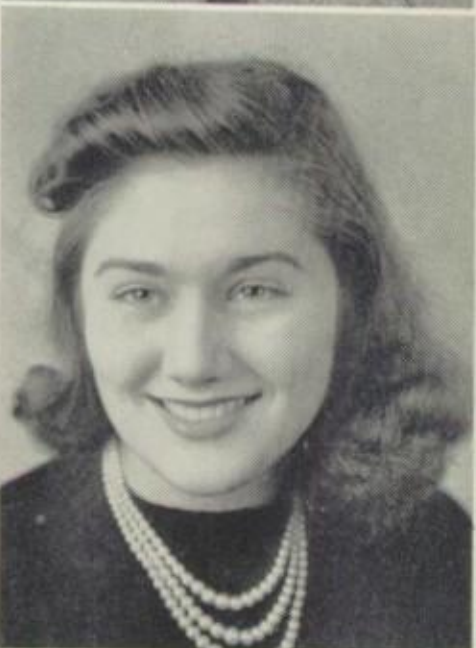

Edith Carlson

One of our quiet but industrious seniors is Edith, who devotes an abundance of time and effort working on the production staff.

OF 1944

June Cater

This tall understanding brunette with the cheerful smile is well suited for her chosen profession, teaching little boys and girls. June can be depended upon for help at any time.

Leonard Bitler

"Duke" was the powerhouse on our football team for he is just full of that old drive. "Duke" left us at the half and his snappy grin is missed by many.

Jim Branch

Jim may always be counted on to appear at social events and school functions. Being an outdoors man, he enjoys both winter and summer sports. Two outstanding features of his appearance are his flashy jackets and his well-groomed hair.

Ann Cooper

Ann is known for her natural curly hair and her shy manner. Her quietness does not hide her sweetness, generosity and efficiency.

Jack Bredt

Jack's acting ability and husky physique will be remembered by all. None of us will forget Jack's sparkling personality.

Jeanne Corby

This is the gal to watch if you're playing basketball for she guards as if she had ten arms instead of two. Jeanne has an effervescent personality and acclaims many friends.

Pat Daly

Pat can be seen around school carrying out her work on the production staff. Winning a scholarship at Wooster College proved that she was worthy of being elected to the National Honor Society in her junior year.

Bill Broestl

This tall, blonde senior is the silent type. You wouldn't expect him to have the rich, mellow voice that he possesses. In spite of his quietness, he's lots of fun.

SENIOR CLASS

Alan Cazier

Al's favorite hobby is repeating other people's jokes. He is our A plus chemistry student. He is also one of our Air Corps Reserve boys.

Mabel Delano

"Doc" joined our class last year and since then has become a definite part of it. The only time her agreeable manner becomes disagreeable is when she discusses hockey in history class.

*Best of Luck Always!
Have fun too!
Doc*

Catherine Dort

Although this brunette is not very active in school affairs, the class would not be the same without her. But we all know one thing, she is all out for the Navy.

Larry Collins

A blond, well-muscled lad, Larry is a great enthusiast of sports and athletics. When not participating he can be counted upon as an equally enthusiastic fan.

Patty Duff

Cute as a bug and just as lively is "Duffy". Her soprano voice and her lilting laughter are her two constant shadows.

Glenn Combes

This is one of the smaller seniors, yet Glenn surely makes up for his small stature when he's leading cheers. Glenn's humor makes him an asset to the school.

Phil Collins

Phil is somewhat on the silent side. He really shows his ability in Math Class. Phil has a fine sense of humor and he enjoys riding in an automobile when he has the gas.

Alean Ewing

Whenever music prevails, there also, may be found Alean. This auburn-haired senior spends much of her time singing and playing the piano and is very apt in the two abilities.

OF 1944

Barbara Fenker

An excellent horse-woman, Barbara spends as much time as possible riding. Her swell disposition and her talent for shorthand are sure to help her to make a great success of her life.

Jim Cronander

Jim is small but mighty and he astounded everyone with his brilliant writing ability. He is an outdoor man and likes hunting in the wide-open spaces.

Bob Dillon

Although Bob left at the half this year he is never to be forgotten for his plaid sport jackets, his bow ties and his blond hair.

Joan Fowles

Her main interest in school is singing; her main interest outside of school is Clark—bars. She likes everything and everybody and is always ready for fun.

Will only advise to is: don't do anything I wouldn't do!!
 Best of Luck
 Bill

Bill Ewing

Bill is our financial wizard. He managed our senior play and he did a good job because we came in in the black.

Edith Gedeon

Edith is the intellectual type but that doesn't mean she spends her life in a book; for Edith contributed much to the assistance of our school. She and her twin sister were co-chairmen of Service group for Friendship.

Ellen Gedeon

Ellen and her "Cheshire" grin are as inseparable as she and her twin sister. Ellen is quite an artist and her work in the art department has shown that she has great ability.

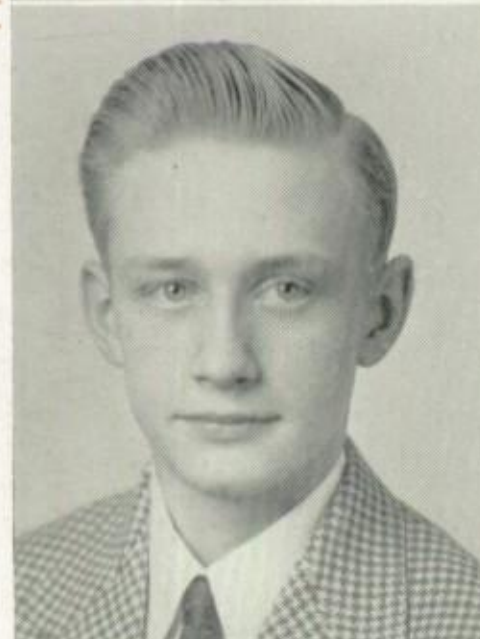

Eugene Feldkercher

Gene is one of the many fellows who left at mid-year for the Army Air Force. His loud, husky voice and pleasing personality were missed by all of us.

SENIOR CLASS

John Fenker

John's abilities in the scientific field are not equalled by many. Lately he has found his way into the social whirl of the school. His popularity has risen greatly among the girls as the result.

Anna Clara George

Anna is our shortest senior but that doesn't stop her from being one of the most industrious. After a brisk mile and a quarter walk every morning, Anna is still all set for a big day of school.

Jean Gilner

Jean's art ability makes her quite an asset to our school. Her pleasant smile and her "swell" personality make Jean a delightful person.

Paul Gaboriault

Paul's art ability can be seen in this book, for Paul did all the drawings. His sly humor is known by all.

Jane Godard

Jane is very scientifically minded, but even so she has a lighter side. She enjoys dancing and all sports. Who can ever forget her in "The Man Who Came To Dinner."

Jim Gregerson

Jim is one of our more serious thinkers. He's always up-to-the-minute when it comes to current events and football. Under the maroon sweater you'll find a big heart and a swell fellow.

Hubert Horten

Behind this wide beaming smile may be found an equally mirthful personality. Although he has derived considerable physical development from working in the soil, this "gentleman farmer" is always the picture of fashion on Saturday night.

Helen Gray

Helen will be most remembered for her radiant smile and gay little laugh. She has an enjoyable personality and thus has achieved popularity among both the boys and the girls.

OF 1944

Joan Grigg

For two years, Joanie has been in the swing of River spirit by her outstanding ability as a cheerleader. Joanie has excellent taste in clothes and hair-do's and she is a genuine friend and pal.

Bud Hughes

This "little giant" is the fellow who showed Charles Atlas how to exercise. Everything about him is fast-moving; from his speed on the athletic field to his snappy conversation and flashing smile around school.

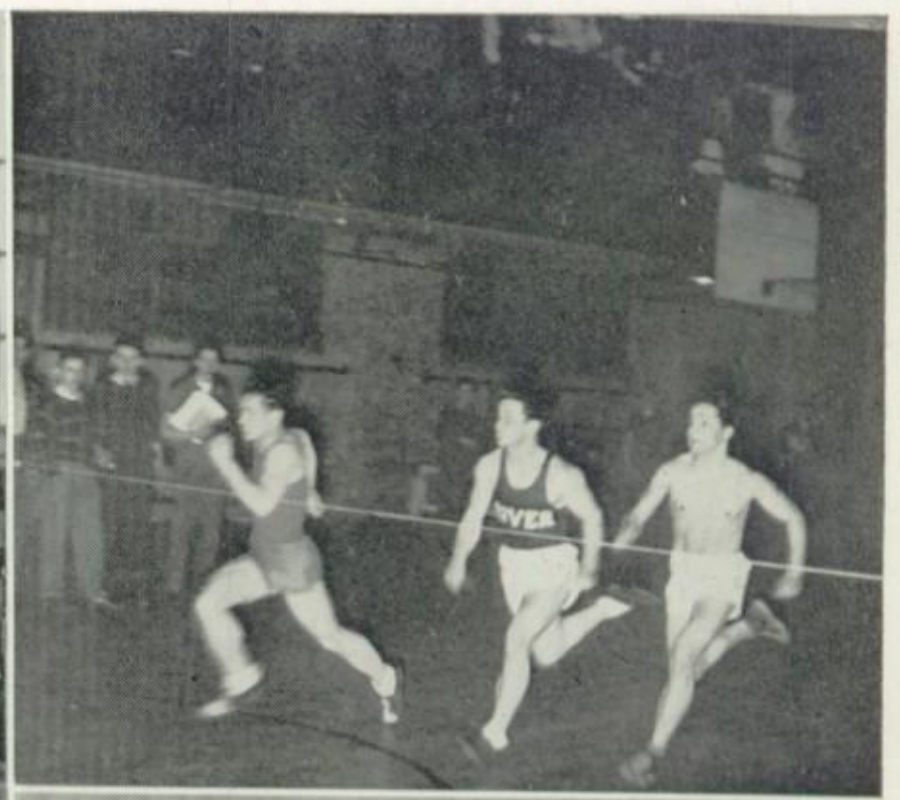

Don Jackson

Don will be remembered for a number of things such as his lunch being brought into chemistry every day. His sparkling smile, his gay humor, and Jackson's Ltd. Keep 'Em Flying is his motto as he is in the Air Corps Reserve.

Joan Wood

Joan's frank manner makes her an interesting conversationalist. She is respected for her sound judgment. This blond bundle of popularity is definitely destined for a bright future.

Shelly Jones

That gorgeous big wave of hair is Shelley's proudest possession and the envy of many girls, but since he's leaving soon for the Air Corps, we fear he'll soon be parting with it.

June Henning

June is another of our peppy cheerleaders. June also has a great interest in National Thespians and in the Friendship Club.

Dick Kaiser

This dark senior is one of the boys who left school at the end of January. Before he left, he identified himself as a Varsity R man and as one of the foremost senior "Casanovas."

Phyllis Horwich

This dark brunette senior is one of the best dancers in the class. Many is the time that you just want to stop and watch her when you see her at a school dance.

Betty Henn

Our "Blonde Bomber" is known as the smaller but older member of the Henn's. She seems to be bubbling over with joy whenever you see her.

Bill Kaiser

Bill doesn't follow his older brother's footsteps very closely. In spite of the fact that he is quiet at times, he has a grand sense of humor as all his classmates can tell you.

SENIOR CLASS

Barbara Hills

This powerhouse of dynamic energy is an ardent sports fan, square dancer, and ice skater. She has been chairman of many committees about the school and has more than once proven her ability as a leader, organizer, and good sport.

Ray Karabinus

Ray, the calculating, scientific type, is to the slide rule what Goodman is to the clarinet. He leads an active school life of clubs and activities and can be depended upon for interesting recitations in his classes.

Barbara Johnson

Barb's friendly smile is the key to her success. She likes to do anything that's exciting. Her wavy hair and that pin she wears on her lapel are the envy of not just a few senior girls.

To a swell little sophomore... it's too bad you didn't keep up your piano. Good luck John Lutz

John is an expert at two things — playing the piano and playing basketball. John enters the V-5 Naval Air Corps program this summer.

Pete Miller

Pete is our famous camera fiend and there isn't a place he won't go for a picture when "Queenie" (his pride and joy) has enough gas in her. Pete is extremely fond of A Cappella and is a genius at math.

Jo Anne Johnson

Jo is generally unassuming but is, nevertheless, quite talented. She has considerable writing ability and is quite gifted at piano playing. Neat dressing is one of her characteristics.

'Sopl.' To a peppy Soph. Jun. pretty strong. Lots of fun. Heavy

Dorothy Kray

Dorothy is very intellectual and has a great imagination. Although an excellent chemistry student she handles chemicals rather carefully and believes that they are good things to stay away from.

Bob Miller

Bob is athletically inclined — and who wouldn't be with a build like his? Usually he is jocular and joking but he has his serious moments. Who can ever forget "Heavy's" red hair?

Bob Milner

Bob's beautiful wavy hair was the subject of much discussion at the senior play. He is known for his excellent speeches and is head of the Keymen who play such an important part in school life.

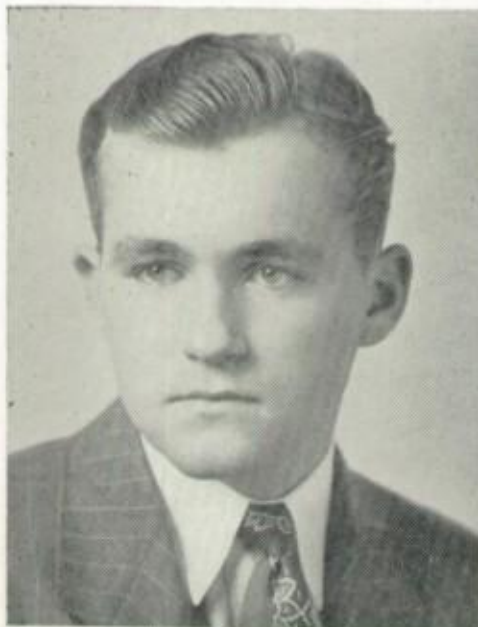

Shirley Kredel

Shirley always seems to have a smile for everyone. You can always count on Shirley if there is something that you want done. Her complexion is something to rave about.

John, I'm a very cute girl. I have fun & two years. Shirley

Gilson Miltenberger

Gil will always be remembered for his football playing. But the really big thrill came to "Milt" when he was named All-Southwestern Conference center.

Jessie Laisey

This industrious senior looks very striking in her snappy drum majorette uniform. She could be seen leading our fine band up and down the football field many times last fall.

you, your a super gal you and a real neat dancer
best of luck
Jack Myers

Joanne Le Pontois

Sleeping is Joanne's pet hobby. Even so she always is full of pep. Her interests are mainly chocolate (in any shape or form) and listening to Sinatra croon.

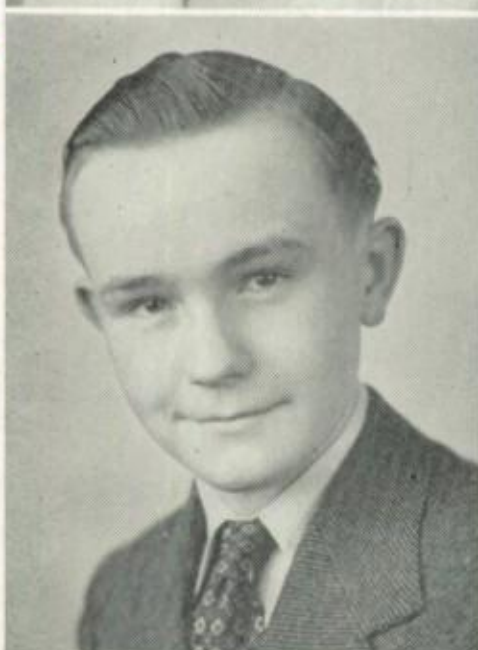

Jack Myers

Tall, blond, and scientifically inclined and in the Naval Air Corps would almost sum up Jack. Although Jack seems quiet at first, we know there's plenty of fun when he's around.

Best of luck during your senior year!
Jack Myers

Paul Parmalee

Paul is a loyal student of wild-life. If you go to his house sometime you will find out for his house is something of a zoo. Paul is very good natured as the expression on his face usually bears this out.

Irene Lindstrom

"Shotgun" has acquired almost as many nicknames as friends. She likes to listen to symphony music, while munching a "Dagwood." But Irene's great love is the out-of-doors.

Mary Alice Lyman

Mary Alice is one girl who "adores" "cokes" and potato chips. Though she seems rather quiet in school, she is loads of fun as the senior stage crew can well verify.

Art Pasterczyk

If you see a very tall senior in a starched shirt meandering down the street, it is most probably Art, out for a stroll. Art has a genuine interest in airplanes and spends much time at his hobby.

SENIOR CLASS

Faye Mac Naughton

If there is a new dance step on the face of the earth, Faye is sure to know it and is able to display it with grace and poise. Next to dancing Faye is fond of pot-lucks, pink blouses, and good jokes.

Dick Power

This shy, taciturn senior may be seen often indulging in sports. When you get to know Dick you will find a wonderful person under all that silence.

Tom Rice

Tom always has loads of friends and they are usually piled high in his car, ready for a day's excursion — when gas permits. Most of the fellows would like to know Tom's secret of how he keeps his hair so nicely combed.

Joan Marcolin

Joan loves to dance and she is quite adept at it, too. She is always ready to join in the fun and her good sportsmanship has won her many friends. She is well-known for her wavy hair and her colorful wardrobe.

OF 1944

Ida Rose Martin

Although she is shy and quiet, Ida Rose is lots of fun. She is a good sport and she is always ready with her special brand of humor.

Bob Ritchie

This loyal follower of Mr. Richards' Lyaku Club likes all nature, especially rabbits. Bob is a little fellow in size, but always interesting to talk to.

John Roberson

Of course we have a Ty Power in our class, and John's the man. He's very generous, would do anything for a friend and he usually does for he has lots of them.

Rosemary McCormick

Mickey's gay smile and sly wit will always hold a place in our memories and possibly in all from the seventh grade up. Her friendliness is something few will ever excel her in.

We've had a lot of talks together. I wish we could have made you're so class. You're so cute, you'll be a success.
Love, Mickey

Paul Robinson

Paul's one of our stage-struck fellows and we aren't able to imagine a play here at school without Paul on the stage. Many other accomplishments are his and we can't see what will keep him from success.

Pat McCullough

Pat's first love is her violin and Pat excels in this field. She has been active in all activities and is well-liked by all her friends.

Pearl Nowland

In her two semesters at River, Pearl has made a place for herself in the senior class. Although she is rather quiet and reserved in school, she has many friends.

Warren Rudy

Being valedictorian, Warren naturally has a great I. Q. and a flair for the intellectual. He doesn't, however, spend all his time emersed in volumes of reading matter, for he also enjoys singing, hiking, and wrestling.

SENIOR CLASS

Ray Sarles

Our president is one of the most active fellows in the class and in the school. His "Tarzan" physique has served him well in all kinds of sports.

Kathryn Nyland

Bundles of smiles and laughter possessed by Kay contribute much to the joy of our senior class. Kay's happiness is extremely contagious and everyone enjoys her company.

Jeanne Ormsby

From the tip of her toes to the top of her head, Jeanne is stuffed with the three C's (cheer, cleverness, and corn). She's a sports enthusiast and she is somewhat of a basketball whiz herself.

Wade Schwartzberg

Wade is the "Mighty Midget" of our class. He is as peppy and as active as anyone around. He is not all humor though, for he is already in the Army Air Corps.

Betty Schenk

It would please Betty if she could spend all her time on skates and, believe me, she can be found out at Puritas, skating, whenever the opportunity arises. Betty has a smooth voice which is a pleasure to hear.

Roland Seed

A three-word description of Rol- lie is small, short, and speedy. Although he was new this year, he quickly got into the swing of things especially when it came to basketball, where he was one of our star forwards.

you're short & cute and boy do I think I was that little you got beautiful clothes + I think you just smell marge.

Bill Shearer

Bill's the fellow everyone likes, for his poetry, gigantic vocabulary, and witty personality. Elected president of Hi-Y twice this year, and always willing to lend a helping hand or cheer us up, he's loads of fun to have around.

Marge Schwartz

Marge is the girl with the smile, the "neat" clothes and the only one who this year has never lacked a ride home. Always a good listener to good or bad jokes, she's a joy to the fellas with the "corny" quips.

OF 1944

Esther Scott

Esther and her twin sister are two beautiful girls. Their hair is their pride and joy. They always seem to have a pleasant smile for everyone.

Whitney Slaght

At mid-year we all missed Whit's round face, catchy smile and freckles as one of our favorite track stars left River and Shirley behind to attend Western Reserve University.

Romilly Traves

"Doc" is a little guy with a devilish glint in his eye. He is the type that the girls call cute. Excepting when he is talking about airplanes, he is all humor and wit.

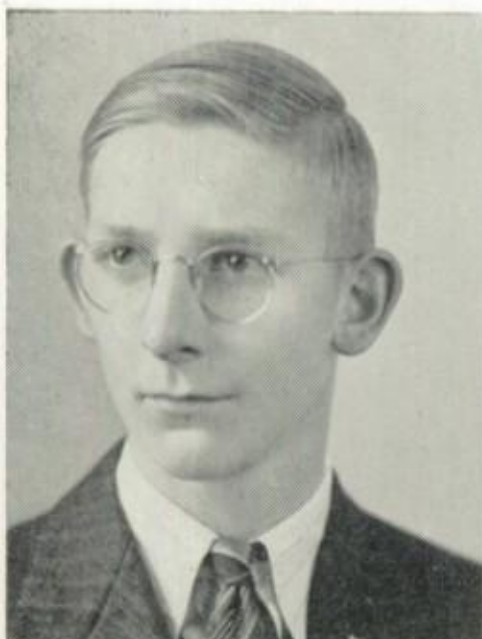

Evelyn Scott

Although Evelyn is larger than Esther, Evelyn is not any more active. Both can be seen making their way to school in the morning even though they have farther to go than most of us.

Don Urban

When you see a broad smile followed by a quantity of blond hair, you are looking in the direction of Don. He has a quiet, comforting air about him and a loyal interest in school affairs which make him an all-round good fellow.

Jeannie, you're so little and darling and I'm sure you're going to make the most of your last two years. Barb

Barbara Sollenberger

Barb will not soon be forgotten for her fine acting in our senior play. This poised senior is known to all. Her pleasant laugh is enjoyed by her many friends.

Betty Sorensen

Betty's pride and joy is her beautiful blond hair. This senior loves everybody and everything. Betty is a loyal follower of all school activities.

Karl Ware

"Tubby," who was the president of Student Council and the catcher of our immortal baseball team, always has a hearty laugh and a broad smile. He plays baseball the year-round and is a smooth dancer.

SENIOR CLASS

John Whitcomb

John is filled with sharp, quick comebacks to all remarks and with a talent for playing the clarinet either hot or cold. He takes the Poultry Press, proving that he is vitally interested in all kinds of chicks.

Margaret Swinehart

Although Margaret did not come to us until her junior year, she has not lacked friends. This distinguished-looking senior simply loves to dance with her best beau, her dad.

Winifred Sutcliffe

Winnie has red hair, a flashy grin, many friends and a definite love for Friendship Club. She does much for her school and her friendship is enjoyed by many.

Jeannie, you're a member of the best class there, have fun! Bob, be good. Best! Bob.

Bob Wilson

This tall, lanky senior is a whiz at basketball and tenth grade girls. His favorite pastime is riding in his sharp black convertible.

Helen Taylor

Helen is a brown-haired, fun-loving senior who goes all out for sports and progressive suppers. She is a grand person to have around, for she is very easy to get along with.

Lois Timm

This pert little senior gave us some powerful acting in our senior play. Lois seems to be just full of dramatic ability. If she goes on with dramatics we're sure she will be successful.

Annette Trump

One of the best-natured gals in our class is Annette and she is willing to do anything for a friend. One of her greatest accomplishments was the pretty blue jumper she made in home ec.

Eleanor Walker

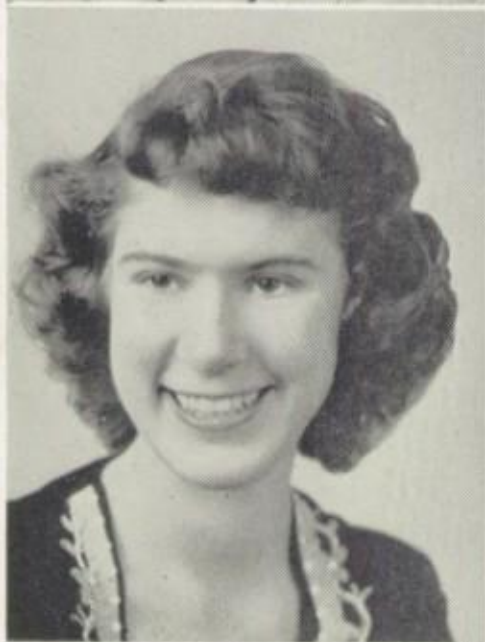

Eleanor always seems ready for some snappy remark. Her pep will be missed by all.

OF 1944

Alyce Walter

Alyce is one of our cutest seniors. Her pleasant voice is enjoyed by many. Alyce can also be seen twirling a baton at the head of our band.

Jane Watterson

This senior with the beautiful blond hair is always ready for fun. But she gets down to business when there is something to do for she performs numerous duties around the school.

Gloria Werntz

This senior has a remarkable flair for writing. Gloria is rather quiet in school, but she has a humor all her own.

Senior Clubs in Review

FRIENDSHIP CLUB

The Friendship Club started off the year with the traditional Kick-off Dance. Many interesting meetings were presented by ring group concerning different phases of religion. Friendship and Hi-Y sponsored two mixers during the year. A panel discussion was held in March with members of both clubs participating. Friendship and Hi-Y also sponsored an inspiring Lenten Service at the Rocky River M. E. Church. The new plan of Hi-Y and Friendship sharing their meetings has been very successful and co-operation between the two clubs will stand as a model for the years to come.

NATIONAL THESPIANS

National Thespians got off to a good start this year by presenting their first play, "The Man Who Came To Dinner." This was the biggest success Rocky River High School had seen up to this time. In January new members were initiated into the club. Many interesting programs were presented during the course of the year. One of the outstanding programs of the year was a one-act play given at one of the evening meetings by one of the public speaking classes. An interesting radio play, "Miss Liberty Goes to Town," was given before the senior high as an assembly. The year drew to an end with a enjoyable potluck supper.

IYAKU

Iyaku started out the year with a picnic in the valley. This club had many interesting speakers including the following: Eugene Case, Mr. Surrarrerr, Miss Alice Young, and Mr. Works. Also, at each meeting three of the members gave a short talk. One of the outstanding events of the year was the tour of the Case Greenhouse on Palm Sunday. The year came to a close with the annual picnic.

CURRENT FORUM

Although Current Forum got off to a slow start this year, the meetings have been enjoyable and many diversified talks have been offered. Some of the outstanding speakers were Mayor Thomas, who told us of our city; Mrs. Whitcomb, who discussed our foreign policy; and Mr. Beimes who explained the problem of juvenile delinquency.

HI-Y

One of the outstanding events at the beginning of the school year was the presentation of Major Allen Martini, veteran of many air missions over Europe. Dr. King from Lakewood and Norman Shaw from the Cleveland Press were other outstanding speakers during the year. In March members of the Hi-Y and their guests enjoyed the City-wide Hi-Y Dance at Hotel Cleveland. The present year's activities were brought to a close with the Sweetheart Banquet, May the twenty-seventh.

Rocky River had a successful season this year in football. Last year's first string team was mostly seniors, and, consequently Coach Motts had very few veterans to start with this fall. The only holdovers from last season's squad were Gil Miltenbereg, All-Southwestern Conference center; Dave Davies, former guard, who did a bang-up job at fullback; Ray Sarles, another former guard, who was this year's defensive signal caller from the halfback spot; and Duke Bitler, back again at tailback. Bob Miller and Dick Myers were our heavy tackles, while Bob Friesner and Don Kelly filled end positions. "Little Joe" Sandvick was left guard, while right guard position was filled by Ken Koster. In the back field at left half was Bud Hughes.

The boys, fired with enthusiasm by the 1942 record, got right into the swing of things and took the first three games. River suffered a serious loss in the fourth game on our field with Berea. In a touchdown drive, Duke Bitler fractured his collar bone and was unable to play for the remainder of the season. River went into a slump, losing the next three games. However, on November 5, our old rival, Fairview, visited us. The boys, determined to take this game, licked Fairview by the score of 51-0; then defeated Bedford a week later on their own field. Coach Motts was well-pleased with this football season, his last at River for the duration.

Our Varsity Hardwooders captured the Conference championship this year, and you can bet we're mighty proud of them. Coach Randall Motts left for the Navy in the middle of the season and Mr. Crites stepped into coaching position for the remainder of the time. Roland Seed, newcomer to River this year, proved a very capable captain, and was ably assisted by veterans Bud Berkey, Johnny Lutz, Bob Loesch, Hank Enger, and many others. Five hundred-fifty spectators jammed the gym to watch the final game against Oberlin February 18. River trailed by the score of 20-17 at the half. The boys re-entered the game with fresh determination, however, and forged ahead, carrying a one point lead through the fourth quarter. When the buzzer for the final period sounded, the score stood River 34, Oberlin 33, and wildly excited spectators jammed the gym floor, and crowded around the players. At the annual basketball banquet, each boy was presented with a small gold basketball, through the courtesy of the parents, to signify that he was a conference champ. The large Conference Championship trophy may now be seen in the trophy case opposite the office.

As the Riverlet goes to press the baseball and track seasons are just opening. Here are the schedules:

Jeanne:
 I haven't known you
 very well until this year.
 But you've been swell to me. Maybe some day you will tell me more about your "shall I say"
 "indulging"

"Sue"

I can think of plenty of names to call you but I won't put any in the book. P. 3. These good words.

Ray Daedlow

I'm sorry you ever broke up with Don, I haven't seen much of you but we'll be down a lot

Jim

For a wonderful basketball player. Only I wish you wouldn't get A's in Latin because you raise the class average. See you next year in Latin and I don't mean Latin III. Good Luck

Jerry

To my letter Latin partner. The best of luck. (Something novel) But I mean it. Love Jackie

"Jannie",
Honey, stay as cute as you are, that won't be hard. I'm really glad I know you!!
Love, Peggy. XX

"Curly"

You're neat - We had lots of fun didn't we?? You had lots of fun - I hope we can always be the best of friends - I hope you get who you want.

Lots of Luck
Don.
"Seedie"

Jean
You sure are a swell kid and I hope we'll always be friends!
Jackie H

Now Jeanie,
There's no one that I love more than you and I want to know every new thing you do (to know you's means I'll count to know you) I'll count my fingers

Love
Jackie
